Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS)

We know that it can be a worrying and confusing time when you or someone you know is unwell. If you have concerns about any aspect of your care, or the service you receive, it is best to first speak with a member of staff involved with your care. If you find that staff cannot help you, or you are not comfortable speaking with them, you can contact PALS.

PALS stands for Patient Advice and Liaison Service. PALS staff are there to listen to you. They can give you information and advice. They can help you if you are unhappy

PALS is a confidential service designed to support patients, relatives and carers. You can ask a friend or relative to contact the team on your behalf, but we must have your permission before we can discuss your personal circumstances with anyone else.

We are here to:

- Offer advice and support
- Help sort out problems on your behalf
- Listen to your concerns, suggestions or queries
- Provide information about the Trust's services
- Pass on your compliments to staff

How to contact PALS
